THIRTY-EIGHTH YEAR

LIMA, OHIO, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 31, 1923

EFFECTS OF MOONSHINE

BOOTLEG booze containing various poisons, principally wood alcohol or reconstructed alcohol, is having a serious effect on Lima men who imbibe it freely. This information comes from Chief of Police T. A. Lanker and Judge Emmet J. Jackson of Criminal court.

One needs only attend a few sessions of police court to realize how the poison concoctions being consumed are undermining health and mind. Scenes are different from the old days when "drunks" were arraigned. Now they are "wild-eyed," nervous and their mental faculties are impaired if they have been habitual users of the stuff for considerable time.

Judge Jackson declares men coming into his court now show far greater physical damage now than in pre-prohibition days. He says damage to their eyes, mind and general condition is noticeable. They are nervous and jumpy.

The judge believes poison liquor is responsible, to a large degree, for the increased number of killings throughout the country. This may be traced to nervousness caused by the "slow death" men are drinking, he says.

RECOVERY FROM DOSE IS SLOW

Men may be brought into police headquarters late at night in a paralyzed condition. They may not be in condition for arraignment the next morning, being in a stupor. They recover much more slowly from the bad rum they are drinking now than in the old days when they were drunk, but not poisoned.

Chief Lanker says he sees a rapid decline in the physical condition of "repeaters" in the city jail. "Every time they come back, they are in a worse condition than on their last appearance," he said. "When some of them are brought in, they are so weak and in such a dilapidated condition that I cannot see what keeps them alive," he continued.

Bootleg liquor alone is not responsible for all of the sad cases of wrecked humanity, the chief said. He believes that a big percentage may be traced to consumption of Jamaica ginger. This drink has a terrible effect upon the system and one who drinks it freely lasts only a short time, a large number of cases show.

QUALITY OF LIQUOR IS DECLINING

Chief Lanker said bootleg liquor is growing worse and worse. He discussed the apparent carelessness in the making of moonshine as compared with a few months ago and said corn and synthetic liquor obtainable is certainly not fit to drink. Sheriff Crosson, who assumed his duties the first of the year, has not had an opportunity to make a study of addicts of the bootleg evil.

All of the officials, however, are agreed that the poison being distributed now by unscrupulous vendors constitutes one of the greatest perils of the day. They believe every possible effort should be exercised in stamping out this evil for the general welfare of the community.

WAR ON DRUG USE BY STUDENTS IS PLANNED

CHICAGO — (United Press) —

Drastic steps to end the traffic in drugs to high school students here was expected today following sensational disclosures made to police by George Roth, 18, who is near death from self-inflicted wounds.

Roth told authorities he shot himself after an unsuccessful fight to throw off the drug habit. He was a student at the Lane Technical high school.

Roth said he got drugs from a peddler "who was fast becoming wealthy by selling dope to the students."

The Roth tragedy followed closely an investigation at another high school, which revealed, according to police, the sale of drugs and liquor to students who staged a series of "wild parties."

Roth was rushed to the hospital after he was found in the elevated station. Physicians said he could not live more than a few hours.

NOTE TO FATHER — A. J. Roth, father of the boy, declared he had received a note in which his son told him he was "at the end of his rope," and begged forgiveness.

"Don't blame me; blame the drug," the note said.

Roth told police he first took the drug for a toothache last October. He said he soon got the habit and his life became a nightmare to obtain funds to buy drugs. He admitted pilfering money from his parents because the "medicine was expensive."

"I cut classes and knew that my family would find it out sooner or later and so I decided to end it all," he said.

Police are convinced that many pupils are victims of the drug peddler and launched an immediate investigation.

MAYOR IS WARNED

Mer Rouge Executive Told to Leave or Become Corpse

MONROE, La. — (Associated Press) — Federal authorities probably will be asked to take some action in connection with the receipt of a threatening letter by Robert L. Dade, mayor of Mer Rouge, in which the mayor was warned to leave the town within ten days or "become a corpse." It became known here today.

The communication, dated January 28, and signed "Law Abiding," bore a Hot Springs, Ark., postmark. It was intimated that the state authorities would call the letter to the attention of the department of justice agents still in Morehouse parish gathering evidence in connection with last summer's kidnappings which culminated in the death of Watt Daniel and T. P. Richard of Mer Rouge on August 24.

PRODUCTION AT HIGH MARK — YOUNGSTOWN — Iron production in the Youngstown district today reached the highest point since October, 1920. The last idle steel of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company began producing today, making 2 of 4 blast furnaces in the district now active, and producing more than 80 per cent of the valley's rated capacity.

COAL SHORTAGE OVERCOME BY USE OF FRENCH HAT

NEW YORK — The coal shortage in Brooklyn intensified by a record snow-fall for January, made Edward J. Kennedy think a lot. He told friends today he had overcome the heating problem.

He took a trench hat, bored a hole in the top, then wired a tin can inside of it and attached the hat to a rack over an oil lamp. When the metal got hot, it is said, the heat was sufficient to warm an entire room.

350 PERSONS POISONED AT JACKSON DAY BANQUET

NORWALK, Ohio — About 350 of the 350 persons who attended the twenty-fourth annual Jackson Day banquet here Tuesday night were ill today of poisoning. Physicians said they believed the poisoning was caused by stewed chicken which was served, after the covers of the cooking utensils were left on it while it cooled.

CONNEAUT MAN TO MANAGE ARGONNE

C. W. Smith Purchases Equipment and Lease of Hotel

Purchase of the furnishings and equipment of the Hotel Argonne and the leasing of the building for a period of years by Clifford W. Smith, Conneaut, and associates was announced by Frank Colucci and C. V. Huenke Wednesday.

The new owners will assume control of the hotel as of February 1. Smith will be in active charge of operation, as well as one of the owners and lessees.

"We plan to make the Hotel Argonne the most popular spot in Lima and expect to give it the prestige it should have as a Lima owned and operated institution," Smith said Wednesday.

"In a few weeks my associates and myself will meet and form the incorporated body which will operate the hotel. It will probably be known as the Smith-Huenke Hotel company," he continued.

Decreases in rates charged for rooms and also in the dining room will probably be put into effect in the near future. This will not mean any lowering in the class of service, however, Smith pointed out.

Further announcements as to the contemplated changes will be made from time to time, Smith said. It is planned to have the new management and the owners of the building work in close harmony in the up-building of the hotel.

The hotel property was purchased by Colucci and Huenke several months ago at receivers' sale. They represented the second mortgage holders and the present transaction is the result of their campaign to place the hotel on a firm financial foundation.

Smith, who has been in the hotel business for 16 years and recently sold his Hotel Cleveland in Conneaut, will have as his associates T. P. Ogwin, for four years manager of the Statler Hotel, Cleveland, W. A. Greenleaf, former lieutenant governor of the state, and S. E. Needs, former president of the Berg-Holtz Coal company.

For the present, the regular routine will be maintained at the hotel and with the exception of William Haefner, manager, there will be no changes in the personnel, it was announced.

Haefner declined to make public his plans for the future when interviewed Wednesday.

BURDITT MICHAEL TAKES OWN LIFE

Dies at St. Rita's Hospital Soon After Firing Shot

HAD THREATENED OTHERS

Daughter-in-Law Flees From Home Before Tragedy

Burditt Michael, 77, a pioneer of Allen-co, died at St. Rita's hospital at 11:35 a. m. Wednesday, the result of a self-inflicted bullet wound in his right temple.

Michael shot himself at his home, 836 W. Spring-st., shortly after 10 a. m. with a revolver. Despondency over ill health is given by relatives as the cause of the rash act. The wounded man was rushed to St. Rita's hospital.

Michael spent most of his life as a carpenter, working at this trade every day up to the last 10 years, when ill health forced him to retire.

During the past two years he had threatened to kill different ones from time to time and take his own life, according to members of the family.

His daughter-in-law, Mrs. Earl Michael and his wife, Mary, were in the sitting room when he came down from the upper floor with an old fashioned 32-calibre revolver in his hand. The daughter-in-law ran to the street to call for help, fearing for her own life and that of her mother-in-law. When she reached the sidewalk she heard a shot. Returning to the house, she found Michael lying on the bath room floor, with a bullet in his head. His wife did not witness the shooting.

REVOLVER HIDDEN — The revolver Michael used in one he had kept hidden from members of the family for some time, also they hunted for it from time to time, fearing he would shoot someone with it, they declared.

Surviving members of the family are Earl Michael, his son, Irene Michael, his daughter-in-law and his wife, Mary Michael.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

TURKEY'S ANSWER IS DEFERRED

Given Four Days for Reply to Allied Ultimatum

LONDON — (United Press) — Great Britain's delegation to the Lausanne conference was forced today to withdraw its ultimatum to the Turks and agree to delay final decision on the peace treaty until Sunday evening.

Marquis Curzon, spokesman for the allies, granted a delay of four days after Janet Pasha had declined to give a definite answer and had asked a fortnight's postponement.

Curzon intimated he would remain at Lausanne until next week. The change in the British attitude which had been that Turkey must accept or reject the treaty today or the conference would end, was forced by France. The French sent the Turks a note, saying the British ultimatum did not apply to France, and granting more time for discussion of disputed points in the treaty.

FRANCE CONDEMNED — LONDON — (United Press) — Bitter condemnation of France's action in shattering the allied front at Lausanne by writing the Ankara government that the peace treaty need not be considered an ultimatum and that the French would stay on and continue discussions with Janet Pasha, was England's first reaction to the unexpected move of the Quai d'Orsay today.

Many newspapers see possibilities of war in the Near East as a result of this demonstration that the entente is at an end and as far as the solid front toward Turkey is concerned, just as it is ended on reparations.

POLICE OF TWO STATES OUTWITTED BY ELOPERS

BALTIMORE — After their second elopement attempt, Carolyn, 18-year-old daughter of W. Morgan Shuster, president of the Century Publishing Company, New York, and William Morris, 20, whose father runs a general store at Glasgow, Ky., are on their honeymoon. They said:

"Yes, we are married. And it's nobody's business but our own where it happens."

Morris and Carolyn had the police of Indiana and Kentucky chasing them not long ago on their first attempt to elope. Carolyn's mother is said to have paid a reward of $1,000 to the man who brought her back unmarried.

The youthful Mr. and Mrs. Morris plan to spend a month honeymooning in Florida, after which they expect to ask forgiveness from the parents.

WIFE STEALS TO FREE HUSBAND

Love Vs. Law—They Clash as Woman Confesses Sacrifice in Court

MRS. EVE BERNARD

CHICAGO — (Special) — Love or the law? Which in more powerful? The jaw of love holds love covers all else.

The law of man punishes all offenders against it.

For Mrs. Eve Bernard here purposefully turned thief to provide her husband with statutory grounds to divorce her so he could marry and be happy with "the other woman," according to testimony introduced in court here in one of Chicago's strangest love and legal tangles.

A blasé court wearied with the routine of justice was openly startled when Mrs. Bernard walked in and voluntarily confessed the theft of a $50 dress from a downtown department store without having attempted to make an easy escape.

WOULD BE FELON

"I'm guilty, judge," she declared simply. "I took the most expensive dress I could find to make the theft a felony. That gives you the right to send me to the penitentiary."

"I don't want a trial. Give me the limit. I love my husband sufficiently to die for him. With me out of the way he can easily get a divorce on the grounds of my imprisonment in a penal institution. The lawyer told us so."

The she stammered.

Judge Schuman admits he's gravely perplexed.

The woman is a confessed thief. For that, the law inexorably charges him to administer justice to the man-made variety.

SUMMONS FOR MATE

The court issued summons to have the errant husband of but a few months brought before him to discuss details of the plan further than to see that provision was made for an interest rate of three per cent for the first ten years and 3-1/2 per cent up to final extinguishment of the debt at the end of 25 years. The interest rate for the time since the loss was made to the actual beginning of the funding arrangement would be 4-1/4 per cent in effect, of the five per cent rate now in effect.

HELD UNDER BOND

Participants in Kentucky Riot Charged With Killing

CORBIN, Ky. — (United Press) — E. Richmond and Fred Day, special officers were released on bond today charged with participating in the slaying of two men and wounding of two others here yesterday.

Cause of the gun battle still is in dispute. J. C. Barker, Louisville and Nashville Railroad dispatcher, and George Yaden, special guard, were killed. Fred Day and Jeff Barker, switchmen, were wounded.

The officers were part of a detail of to inspect policemen placed on guard following the bombing of a rooming house here recently. Day said the shooting climaxed a quarrel between guards and the railroaders about a shot the officers believed was aimed at one of them.

U. S. DEBT PLAN IS ACCEPTED

Britain Agrees to Terms Laid Down by Washington

LONDON — (Associated Press) — Great Britain has decided to accept the American offer in regard to the funding of the British war debt to the United States.

The government's decision was reached at a cabinet meeting this afternoon. There was a full attendance of the ministers and apparently they entered the meeting with the decision already formed to follow the recommendation of the chancellor of the exchequer as the session lasted only a few minutes.

The terms are three per cent for ten years and three and one half per cent thereafter. No reservation was made regarding Great Britain's being allowed to pay the total sum after the ten year period.

EARLY SETTLEMENT EXPECTED — WASHINGTON — (A. S. O'Connell Press) — The British decision to accept the American debt funding suggestions was said today by Secretary Mellon to open the way for immediate drafting of recommendations to the president for changes in the funding law to legalize the terms suggested in the American proposition.

Mr. Mellon who is chairman of the commission appointed to discuss details of the plan further than to see that provision was made for an interest rate of three per cent for the first ten years and 3-1/2 per cent up to final extinguishment of the debt at the end of 25 years. FATTY TO DIRECT

Done With Acting Comedian Says in Statement

LOS ANGELES — Roscoe C. (Fatty) Arbuckle today was preparing to attempt his comeback along the new line he announced yesterday — that of a motion picture director. He said he had signed a contract to direct comedies for a new company for which incorporation papers were filed at Trenton, N. J. yesterday by Edgar Mannix and J. Thomas Connors of Los Angeles.

He issued a signed statement in which he declared he was "done with acting" and that in the role of a director was "a chance to make good in the right way."

After Will H. Hays, titular head of the motion picture industry, announced just before Christmas that Arbuckle, whose career was halted by his three trials for manslaughter in connection with the death of Virginia Rappe, screen actress, was to have "another chance," the fat comedian detailed plans for appearing again before the camera. Protest from numerous sources from all parts of the country quickly were recorded.

GERMANY FIRM IN HER DEFIANCE

Unshaken in Face of New Warning by Paris

DRASTIC STEPS EXPECTED

Allied Invaders Are Now United Under One Command

PARIS — (United Press) — The French government is preparing a note to Germany notifying the latter of a new series of more drastic measures that are to be applied immediately in the occupied areas.

The note also informs the German government that a second and even more severe series will be inflicted unless resistance to French occupation ceases.

(BY CARL D. GOAT)

ESSEN — (United Press) — Intensified state of siege was proclaimed today in all Ruhr cities where French and Belgian troops, now under a single command, are stationed.

The occupation of the Ruhr has settled down to a conflict over control of the railroads. Coal is choking the pit heads and smothering possibilities of further production. Unless it is moved soon mining will have to cease. French and Belgians sought to get rail transportation in working order thru use of troops to run trains, operate signal towers and guard the main lines. German rail workers met such appearance of the military with a prompt strike. Railway men of the Mayence district proclaimed a walk-out this morning.

UNITED OF ACTION — France and Belgium have reached an agreement whereby General De Gaulle shall have supreme command in the Ruhr until two commissioners, one French, the other Belgian, are appointed and take up joint control at Dusseldorf.

General De Gaulle's first act was to warn inhabitants of the newly occupied areas that more drastic measures of repression may be expected shortly if the Germans continue their hostile attitude of passive resistance. This the citizens of the Ruhr did today, showing no sign of yielding to French threats. Reports from Dusseldorf indicated the Germans there were planning fresh sabotage.

ULTIMATUM EXPECTED — LONDON — (Associated Press) — Apparently basing their statements on General De Gaulle's warning to Germany, some of the English correspondents at Dusseldorf assert that the French almost immediately will send Berlin a notification, equivalent in spirit if not in form to an ultimatum demanding reversal of Wilhelmstrasse's policy regarding the Ruhr.

Dusseldorf correspondent says that France will not tolerate passive hostility supported and financed by the German government and that if a satisfactory reply is not given, drastic measures will be taken, exceeding in severity anything that the French almost immediately will send Berlin a notification, equivalent in spirit if not in form to an ultimatum demanding reversal of Wilhelmstrasse's policy regarding the Ruhr.

Dispatches to the Telegraph say that this notification will probably be forwarded to Germany this evening. The correspondent adds that it is not known what form the threatened measures will take but says that they are not likely to involve further occupation of territory.

LEASE OF CANAL IS OPPOSED

Welly Speaks for Waterways Association in Dayton Case

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — Instead of the State of Ohio leasing a part of the Miami and Erie canal and the Mad River feeder, located in the city of Dayton, for use for boulevard and other purposes, the Central Inland Waterways Association today appealed to the committee on waterways of the house of representatives, to insist upon the federal government completing the canal, thus eliminating the alleged city of Dayton monopoly in the city of Dayton.

Speaking for the waterways association, former Congressman B. F. Welly, of Lima, declared that the state is without authority to dispose of the canal or any portion of it as the federal government retains the title to it. He said the Miami and Erie canal is a parallel under-taking to a Michigan canal, ownership of which had been declared by the United States supreme court to be vested in the federal government.

VIEWS ARE AIRED IN DELPHOS PAVING WAR

COUNCIL REOPENED IT, MAYOR SAYS; CITIZEN COMMITTEE SCOUTS CHARGE

Property Owners to Blame, Mayor Says

SEES LACK OF UNANIMITY

Tabling of Ordinances is Termed "Knockout Blow"

Responsibility for the controversy raging in Delphos over the paving of three streets—S. Main, S. Pierce and Cleveland, laid Wednesday by Mayor J. K. Williams at the door of property owners and city council.

The latest move by the council in a state of quietude if councilmen had not broached the subject late in December and started the ball rolling by re-employing Carl Simon, Van Wert engineer, beginning legislation January 9 to repeal ordinances passed in 1922, Williams charges.

"The board of control, composed of myself and Service Director Ed Spelman, does not care whether the project ever is carried out, but since it has been started, we may as well make the most of it," the mayor declared.

Williams says that taxpayers have been unwilling to meet city legislators half way and that many of them are in the fight merely from a prejudicial standpoint.

These, the mayor says, are the backbone of committees of objectors who present themselves at each council meeting. They do not really represent the true sentiment existing along the three thoroughfare, he declares.

SEES UNANIMITY LACK

Williams asserted that lack of unanimity among property owners regarding the kind of material they want, which characterized negotiations prior to awarding of the contract last summer, is still prevalent.

"At our conferences some wanted asphalt block, others sheet asphalt and friends of wood block were not few. It would seem to me that if they decide upon one policy and stick to it, much of this wrangling will be eliminated," the mayor said.

"Many of the points brought out during the summer when a contract with the J. J. Johnson company of Napoleon was subjected to scrutiny at Allen-co common pleas court and property owners were allowed a permanent injunction against it, do not apply to the present situation," Williams continued. "Taxpayers harp upon worn-out strings, and have not yet given sufficient reasons to back up their statement that it will be best to postpone the improvement until the history of the letting of the contract, the mayor declared the board of control simply made the most of a puzzling situation.

"In the final consideration there were only three low bidders and brick to be considered—McHugh & Cole of Lima, the Sweetwater company and the J. J. Johnson company of Napoleon. The first was lacking in sufficient specific details to award the contract, the second withdrew and the third was desirous of making a reconsideration," Williams recalled.

"Events since that time have proven that the board of control was right in its action. Had not there been some friendly feeling among property owners for wood block material, the board would never have awarded the wood block contract to the Johnson people after elimination of brick bids," according to the mayor.

CALLS "KNOCKOUT BLOW"

The latest move by council—tabling the repealing ordinances—is a knockout blow in the light of a knock out blow. Other members of the administration are confident that council will not bring up the matter at the next meeting.

Repealing ordinances have progressed to their second reading. Council read them for the first time January 9 on the strength of a 6 to 1 vote, but upon a motion to pass them under a suspension of rules making it compulsory for each legislative act at three separate meetings, the necessary votes could not be obtained.

Bonds amounting to $25,000 were issued and sold some time after the paving project was started in 1918 to pay the city's share. The entire improvement contemplated an outlay of approximately $100,000.

DELPHOS WOMAN DIES OF DROPSY, HEART TROUBLE

Dropsy and heart trouble caused death of Mrs. Christina Nollan, 77, native of Germany, Wednesday at 10 a. m. at her home, N. Clay-st., Delphos. She had been in failing health for several years.

She was the widow of G. W. Nollan, who died eight years ago, and the mother of seven children, two from a previous marriage. Those living are: Mrs. Anna Stemen, Lima; Catherine, at home; William Nollan, Delphos; Mrs. Tina Baldner, Gibsonburg and Joseph Gehring, Lima.

Mrs. Nollan formerly resided in Elida. She made her home in Delphos for 25 years.

Funeral services Friday at 2 p. m. at the home, in charge of Rev. J. G. Mittelmeier, Lutheran minister. Interment in Woodlawn cemetery, near Elida.

It was decided to launch a membership drive within the near future.

Implication is Denied by Body of Property Owners

OPPOSED TO CONTROL BOARD

Will Continue Fight to Halt Work Until 1924

Contract for paving S. Main, S. Pierce and Cleveland-sts, three Delphos thoroughfare over which property owners are embroiled in a war with city council, will never be undertaken under the present administration, it is the wish of the taxpayers' committee.

"Our committee suggests no economic reasons why property owners want the project halted until 1924; it is simply opposed to the board of control and will never consent to have the proposition handled by it," John H. Jenkins, chairman of the committee, said Tuesday evening.

Other members of the committee are Jesse McKenzie, H. S. McLeod, Isaac McKenzie, Dr. G. L. McKenzie, Lou Rice, Alex Lindemann, Ralph Lindemann, M. J. Gorrell, Harvey Stevick, Fred Davey, Fred Davey Jr., Joseph Clapper, Fred Kauffman, Louis Stallkamp and John Mueller.

The committee Tuesday evening discounted an alleged statement by Mayor J. K. Williams that it was not the board of control which reopened the matter early in January after a period of comparative quietude since summer, when property owners were given a permanent injunction in Allen-co common pleas court against a wood block contract, let by the board of control to the J. J. Johnson company, Napoleon.

"SIGNIFICANT" STATEMENT

An analysis of the initial steps reveals that council could not have taken the initiative in view of the circumstances, committee men say, and they regard with significance a statement made by Mayor Williams at one of the early meetings that "wood block, if properly laid, would make a fine street."

"Our plans do not contemplate possible turn of events in the future," Jenkins declared, "but according to what some of the committee men have told me, it is entirely possible that if council proceeds in the matter and passes the necessary legislation, efforts will be made to secure another injunction."

"Taxpayers residing along the three streets are demanding that council give them consideration in their efforts to halt the project until 1924 and that brick should be used when it is finally undertaken."

The mayor charges property owners with lack of unanimity regarding the kind of material wanted, thus shifting to their shoulders some of the blame for the present deadlock, but this is denied by the taxpayers.

"We all are standing for the same thing. There may have been a few who started an undercurrent in favor of wood block last summer, but later on opponents proved that they are set on brick," Jenkins said.

"There is no question but that property owners want to see these streets paved. I could name you several who would be greatly benefited by the improvement, but they have cast their own interests aside in favor of lining up with the others in the common cause," the chairman of the committee declared.

MOVE NOT FAVORED

According to members of the committee, the proposition of having a council committee appointed to meet with the board of control when the contract is awarded is not favored. The move would not remedy matters, because the councilmen would have no voting power, they say.

Action of the board of control in awarding the contract in the manner it did is attributed by the committee to prejudice against the low bidder on brick material. While the contracting firm's record was investigated by the property owners and found satisfactory to them, the board came out with a statement that its bid was legal because of absence of specific details, and then switched to wood block.

The committee now contends the bid was legal. The reason the contractor did not specify exactly the kind of brick he would use is that he feared manufacturers would be made aware of it and boost prices of the material, it is stated.

More than 250 property owners are affected by the proposed improvement. They are kept in touch with events thru their committee.

STATE MAY ADOPT TAX RECEIPT PLAN OFFERED BY MANAGER BINGHAM

A new form of tax receipt which will show the taxpayer where his tax money goes, has been proposed by C. A. Bingham, city manager, to Governor Vic Donahey.

This receipt form is in general use throughout eastern Ohio, Bingham says, and has proved to be of great help to the taxpayer. It shows where every dollar of the tax money is to be expended.

In a personal letter, Donahey thanked Bingham for the suggestion and intimates that he has had something of the kind in mind for some time. It is possible that the plan may be adopted later, it was said.

WEATHER STATE HEALTH MENACE

Peeved over his inability to hit it off properly for a day or two in forecasting conditions for the immediate future, the weatherman was determined Tuesday to afford evidence in support of his contention that he doesn't always miss it. He came thru with rain during the night, as promised, with continued moist conditions and very disagreeable Wednesday. In fact, the situation is such that physicians are rankly worried about the public health.

Continued dampness and penetrating cold provides conditions that make for influenza and pneumonia. There are many cases of illness due to the state of the weather, doctors state. One practitioner received eight calls in one hour Tuesday night, he asserts.

There is no immediate prospect of a lull, according to the weatherman, and probably rain tonight and Thursday. Slightly warmer in east portion tonight.

It behooves citizens to watch the state of their health. Keep the feet warm and dry, avoid drafts, dress comfortably, but do not "bundle up." Avoid becoming over-heated indoors and then going outside without proper apparel. Do not permit a "cold" to hang on. Seek treatment at once.

This is the advice of the weather mascot—and he knows.

Milwaukee Woman Claims Alleged Bigamist is Legal Mate

Mrs. Elsie Fraser appeared at police headquarters shortly before noon Wednesday to push her claim as the legal mate of Robert Fraser, 35, of 895 Bellefontaine-av.

Fraser is now being held in the county jail on a charge of bigamy, having married Margaret Meyer, daughter of Doc Meyer, city ill-man, four months ago, according to police.

Fraser was arrested last week on a charge from authorities of Milwaukee, Wis., to the effect that a woman residing there claimed to be the wife of Fraser.

He pleaded not guilty and the case had been set at a standstill since that time, awaiting arrival of Mrs. Fraser No. 1.

No. 1, claims to have married Fraser September 10, 1914, in Kentucky, and says she can produce the license, altho she is not carrying it with her.

TIED, NERVOUS MOTHERS

are the direct cause of much unhappiness in our homes, their condition irritates and wears upon the husband and often ruins a child's disposition. This condition of the mother is often due to some weakness which makes her entirely unfit and bear the strain upon her nerves that governing children involves. Every mother who finds herself in this condition should remember that statistics prove that 98 out of every 100 women who suffer from female ailments are helped by Lydia E. FIND STRUCTURES ESCAPE TAX

Owners Fail to List New Buildings, Auditor States

REVIEW BOARD IS AT WORK

County Auditor Says Trouble is Due to Law

Thousands of dollars worth of property in Lima is escaping taxation because owners fail to list buildings in making their return each year.

C. R. Phillips, county auditor, authoritatively for the above statement asserts that since the board of review started its work three days ago, not less than a dozen houses not listed on the tax duplicate have been discovered.

Three new houses of the value of not less than $4,000 each and unlisted, were found in N. Charles-st Tuesday, he said. The owner of the property was paying taxes on the vacant ground. The houses themselves were not listed, Phillips declared.

Another group of new modern homes which have hitherto escaped assessment, was found by the board in Reese-av. Others are scattered here and there about the city.

PERMITS DOES NOT HELP

Duplicate copies of building permits issued by the city and certified to the county are of little aid in making up tax duplicates, Phillips asserts. Too often the building permit is issued, is not constructed. In other cases the builder puts the work too high or too low.

Plus for the condition may largely be laid at the door of present laws, Phillips asserts, which permit an owner to make his own assessment. It is an ad lib tax dodging.

Owners of property are urged to list their property. The penalty for discovery will be filed by the board at 50 per cent fine in addition to the tax by turning in the untaxed property now, Phillips says, no penalty will be exacted.

DIVORCE SUIT DISMISSED

Divorce proceedings instituted in common pleas court by Nellie L. Meitz, against Ernest H. Meitz, were dismissed Wednesday, because of a reconciliation between the litigants.

PERMIT FOR $4,500 HOME

Issuance of a building permit for a $4,500 house to be erected by C. E. Iman on College-av brought the total permits for the month to $174,800, it was announced at city hall Wednesday.

JOHN MALAHAN DIES

John Malahan, 76, of 1013 McCullough-st, died early Wednesday morning at the City hospital. He is survived by his wife, Lucinda Malahan. Funeral arrangements have been completed.

PINED, ORDERED FROM CITY

B. G. Ringlespaugh, 34, and Mrs. B. L. Drake, 33, Spencerville, charged with disorderly conduct at a Lima hotel, pleaded guilty in criminal court Wednesday morning and were each fined $50. Both were ordered to leave Lima.

SPENCERVILLE WOMAN DIES

Mrs. Claudia Shively, 59, of Spencerville, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. F. Baird, in Van Wert. Funeral services at Van Wert and burial in the Spencerville cemetery Thursday morning.

Desertion extending over a period of more than three years is charged in a divorce suit filed in common pleas court Wednesday by Maggie Ann Crawford, against James B. Crawford.

WIFE SEEKS DIVORCE

Alleging that her husband, Adam R. Weaver, has been absent for more than seven years, Mrs. Abbie J. Weaver, Wapakoneta, has filed suit for divorce.

HASTINGS HELD TO GRAND JURY ON FRAUD CHARGE

Roy Hastings, 33, of 725 Holmes-av, was bound over to the grand jury under a bond of $2,000 when he pleaded not guilty Wednesday in criminal court to a charge of attempting to defraud.

Hastings bought a car in Lima and offered a note for $300 in payment, according to police. The owner of the car was told to call a certain party for reference in regard to the note. When he called, the party told him he was the cashier of the City bank and he should accept the note, police said.

When the alleged ruse was disclosed, Hastings was arrested on a charge of attempting to defraud.

HINES MAY KNOW FATE THURSDAY

Motion for New Trial for Slayer is Under Advisement

Olie Hines, 42, mulatto slayer of Robert Halloran, 19, will likely be sentenced by Judge Fred C. Becker, Thursday morning, the court indicated following conclusion of arguments on a motion for new trial, Wednesday.

Hines was present in court to hear the plea in his behalf, but no members of the Halloran family were in attendance.

A little knot of neighbors and friends of the decedent's family was gathered in one corner of the court room to hear the arguments.

Hines was brought into court by Sheriff Crosson. He seemed stoical and unconcerned, but nevertheless listened intently to every word spoken. He wore a natty gray tuxedo suit, a khaki army shirt, with dark green cravat and high polished tan oxfords.

Charges that the court, erred in refusing to grant a change of venue, forcing the defendant to trial in Allen-co where public opinion was turned against him, were made in argument by S. A. Armstrong, counsel for Hines.

It was also asserted that on Friday, the crucial day of the trial, members of the jury were approached by prejudiced persons.

Clarence Fraunfeiler, former deputy sheriff, was accused by Judge Armstrong of talking secretly with A. C. Beaman, storekeeper, American-tp, for a period of more than a quarter of an hour.

Prosecuting Attorney Eugene T. Lippincott, made a brief reply, in which he asked the court to overrule the motion.

Judge Becker took the motion under advisement.

It Affects You—Vitality and Directly

This annual February sale has come to be an integral part of our business religion. Let us tell you what this year's event means—it means that our prices on all furniture have been reduced 25%—marked 1/4 off the present-day prices. Right at this very time all furniture manufacturers and wholesalers are raising their prices—throughout the length and breadth of the land prices on furniture have advanced with one exception, and that exception is this store.

GET THIS STRAIGHT. Beginning the first day in February and continuing throughout the month we have cut our OLD PRICES 25%. This actually means a genuine saving of around 35 and 40% over the prices you will pay this spring. If you have furniture to buy just ask yourself if you can afford to miss this sale. Make your selections during February—a deposit will hold your purchase for future delivery. If it is not convenient or possible to pay cash, you may arrange satisfactory terms for deferred payments.

OUTDOOR LIFE.

If the boys you meet in Lima Feb. 8 seem to be raising more of a rumpus than usual, it'll be in celebration of an event very important to Young America.

The Boy Scouts movement was incorporated and officially launched in our country Feb. 8, 1910, two years after Sir Robert S. S. Baden-Powell started the organization in England.

The general purpose of the Boy Scouts is to train lads in good citizenship, manhood and self-reliance. Its founders, displaying considerable knowledge of psychology, assured its success by adopting uniforms for the members.

Man or boy, let him wear a uniform and he'll do almost anything. Some of our big national movements that fail might be successful if an attractive uniform went with membership. Maybe that's the way to enforce prohibition—officially permit abstainers to wear something like a red coat.

Did it ever occur to you that the uniform is the first image that comes to your mind at mention of Boy Scouts?

FEW of us have an accurate idea of the values the young generation gets from the Boy Scouts. A scout starts as a tenderfoot, then works up, by merit and ability, to second-class scout, finally to first-class.

To be a first-class scout, a boy has to be able to swim 50 yards. He must have at least $2 in a savings bank. He must know how to wig-wag signals by flags. He has to be able to administer first-aid in case of accidents such as severed arteries and drowning. He must know how to read maps, and make them, handle an ax, judge distances and be able to cook for campers.

The Boy Scout pledges obedience to parents, kindness to animals, courtesy to all. He has instilled into him a high code of honor and practical applications of the Golden Rule and Good Samaritanism.

THE best thing done by the Boy Scouts is that it takes its members back to nature. The closer we keep to nature, the better for our nation. There is always hope for a civilization whose boys are prowling in the woods, hiking cross-country, studying birds and flowers and breathing fresh air.

In our half-mad swarming in cities, we have given the boy a raw deal, stripped him of his rightful playgrounds, caged him up like an animal and handicapped him with unhealthy environment. For this the Scout movement is an antidote.

FATTY'S OUT AGAIN.

THOSE who were incensed over the action of Will Hays, directing head of the movie industry, in lifting the ban against Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle, former funny film artist, are now convinced that Hays has bowed to public opinion willingly, or that he suffered an attack of "cold feet."

In any event, Hays has recanted. Fatty will not again be seen in the U. S. in popular comedies with his dough face expression. Hays has reversed himself and has adopted the policy of "let sleeping dogs lie." He sensed the sentiment that was rampant among producers and patrons of the movies alike.

Arbuckle is responsible for his own plight. That he is not again to be permitted to exhibit himself on the screen he has no one save himself to blame. The idol of the animated picture, who lent himself as a participant in a nauseating occurrence, now knows to what depths public sentiment has been stirred against him, by his own act.

Antagonism and resentment against his reinstatement was quick to manifest itself. Hays correctly gauged public opinion and wisely governed himself accordingly. It is doubtful if producers would find Arbuckle a good investment, had they been permitted to resume the showing of his comedies.

Altho Fatty knows his pictures are taboo in America, he is going right along making a new one, to be released in foreign lands, where perhaps his crime has not aroused so much resentment as in the United States. The powers that be in the movie industry are now trying to make it appear that Hays' order reinstating Arbuckle was simply a feeler of public sentiment.

Most anyone else is convinced that Hays did not act in reversing himself until he recognized that he must do it, to save his own face.

'ROUND LIMA HOUR BY HOUR

—WITH APOLOGIES—

BY OH. OH. JACKENRUM

A Page from the Diary of An Antiquated Reporter: (ATOP THE GULF STREAM)—Early up, and below decks to breakfast betimes. On grapefruit and griddle cakes. No radishes aboard this pleasant steamer. City of Miami. Drot down from Chicago for the winter season. The Gulf Stream retards southbound boats six miles an hour and speeds them northward, as much. All the morning, on the sun deck in flannels. Getting a tan on in January. Two women and two husbands on either side of our state room lost all their board, last night. Smooth seas with "a wee bit o' roll" as the Scotchman told George Bayly, did not prevent the usual generous overboard contributions. Of about half of the passengers.

Sailing past Morro Castle, and we pick up the pilot. Who boards us from his gasoline launch without stopping our boat. There's the San Francisco dock and just around the corner our boys died on the Battleship Maine. Setting Cuba free forever, from Spanish rule.

How, we dock and are huddled like the aliens we are. All passengers ashore. Thru the customs and they didn't even open my sister May-me's little overnight bag. In which were my pajamas and the inevitable tooth brush.

The first monies we spent were taxi fares. The chit, 25c to the Plaza hotel, an international beanery with the modest rates of $3.50 each for bed and bath. Not twins, but greasy wide ones. I'd give a peso and ten if my wife, the darling, were with me.

So bot a Cuban beer for 10c, then to a hat store. It's 96 degrees and my cap is on fire. I do prithies my wife, the darling, will not chide me cheerlessly as I wear this hat next June. A real Panama for $4.99. Get the Boston Store price on this wonder hat. Page Charley Federman, the prince.

Around Central Park, and put in at Salon H. Not sa-loon, but salon! Thence into the Royal Blue Rubberneck. The chauffeur from Boston. And tells me Americans are all wrong about Cuba. The highest temperature ever known was 100 4-tubs and the mean average from Christmas to Christmas only 74 degrees hot.

Out here, they have five or six classes of funerals. A big gaudy hearse drawn by not less than eight to twelve horses is first class. Second class is four horses up to eight. And fifth class is carry the body yourself and deposit it in the "Bone house." The poorer classes rent a lot at $10 for five years. Paid in advance. If no more is paid the body is disinterred and the remains put in the bone house.

On your right is the relief of a multi-millionaire, the barker yells. Only 35 years age, almost white, and has 35 millions. Charley Folson please cable for particular specifications.

In the evening, dined at The Leville, with a Bacardi cocktail as an appetizer. A sugar cane distillation mixed with oranges like the late lamented Mr. Bronx.

Here's an American bride and groom who have followed us all the way from Cincinnati. He kicked on $8 a day for a room with bath. And said he would take a $6 bunk without bath. Then she nudged him. He bot the bath.

In the moonshine, out the Prado wearing my new $4 Panama straw hat, made to order as I waited. And so, thinking of Deibel-Woomer's warehouse here, early to bed.

THE DREAD CHANGE BOGERY

"I am 43 years old," writes a Washington correspondent "five feet seven and one half inches tall and had the best health and I can run races with my small children, so I imagine I am now in pretty fair physical condition. I suppose, however, I will have to face the change of life before many years, and I want to be in the best possible condition for that ordeal. . . ."

Now, before we say another word I want to have it clearly understood that there ain't no such ordeal, and I reserve the right to refuse to testify on the ground that it would tend to incriminate me in the event that any reader writes in to ask "Well, then, if there is no change of life, what would you call my trouble?" This is the inevitable reaction whenever I decline to acknowledge as entitles such fanciful states as "rheumatism," "catarrh," "cold," "nervous breakdown" and "indigestion." Mind, I do not doubt that folks with these obsessions really have something the matter; I merely insist that it isn't the legendary thing they imagine it to be. What really does all them is something for the doctor to find out, unless they are content to drift along with such soothing but meaningless diagnoses those named before.

We all pass thru the change of life, most of us without calamity, every day and every year, quite as definitely in every sense as does the woman of 48 or thereabouts.

We are all, men and women, subject to various diseases or impairments in middle age, but sex is absolutely not a factor worthy of consideration in the prevention or treatment of any of the health disturbances of this epoch of life.

As bootless as it is to hope or expect that "the change" will bring about cure or relief of anything that ails you, it is really absurd to suffer needless anxiety about the "ordeal" to be met at 50.

No sensible woman need take any other or more precautions or care of her health at 40 or 50 than she does or should at 20 or 30 or 70.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
To be published in Education
I am a school girl aged 16. I have

Two weeks ago my 18 months old baby had an attack of croup. Since then he crosses his eyes often. What would you advise?—Mrs. J. J.

Answer—The illness probably had nothing to do with the squint. Squint or crossed eyes usually manifests itself first, toward the end of the second or third year. By all means take the child to the eye specialist now. The earlier such trouble is treated, usually with glasses, the better the result.

Plants
Number of growing plants in bedroom, sunny window, husband thinks unhealthy.—Mrs. G. V.

Answer—On the contrary, growing plants in a sleeping room or living room are healthful.

GO ON

Keep on a little longer,
Tho the game seems gone,
It makes your spirit stronger
If you just keep on;
What if you're sick and stale, you're
Not all gone, I guess,
Keep on, it's thus that failure
Often brings success.

Keep on a little longer,
Why should you admit
That anybody's stronger
Than yourself—and quit?
Altho your pep's diminished,
Why, the wise guy knows,
The game is never finished
Till the whistle blows.

When every bone and sinew
Seem to fail you, flat,
There's Something Else that's in you
Which is more than that,
There's a spirit that is stronger,
With a vigor strange,
Keep on a little longer,
And the luck may change!

Manager's Desk Flooded With Ads—Is Your Name In List?

The advertising manager certainly had a difficult task judging the winners from among the many advertisements submitted in the News Ad-Writing Contest, which was announced last Friday.

Many of the ads were excellent and would be a credit to some very professional writers. We would like to print them all if space would permit. But we have chosen only the best and these appear on this page; perhaps yours is among them.

News readers were given the privilege of entering the contest and writing as many ads as they wished for the prizes. The result was amazing. The manager, on opening his morning's mail, exclaimed, "Great Scott, what's all this mean?" Then for a long time he sat, opening one letter after another and putting them in reserve to be judged Tuesday afternoon.

FOLLOWING IS HIS VERDICT:

C. BOTT, 209 N. Park-av, won first prize of $5 with his advertisement on Giant Cord Tires. His work here shows brevity and pointed salesmanship of the ad-expert.

The winner of the second award was Mrs. J. C. Hunter, 636 E. Elm-st, whose human interest touch tells a vivid story as to the reliability of "genuine FORD parts." She added that she would like to have more space to elaborate and make it a real ad. But she could write it so you'd know just what she meant too. Her $3 is awaiting her here.

Then number three award goes to Robert Fitch, 704 Holmes-av, who worked his Dad into a real, live Diamond Grid advertisement for Siferd-Hossellman Co. Come in Bob and get your two berries.

We would like very much to give a resume of all the advertisements for most of them were exceptionally good, but here we will have to be content with mentioning the names of those most worthy of mention: Ned Stevenson, 222 McPherson-av.; George F. Schaaf, 707 Linden-av; John C. Classen, 438 Ewing-av; Miss Lucille Garrett, 329 W. Vine-st; James Hoyt, 717 E. Vine-st; Goldie Kenegsberg, 902 Rice-av; Miss Virginia Rogers, 733 Broadway; Anne Kenegsberg, 902 Rice-av; Carl Robertson, 950 N. West-st; Mrs. Omer Quandt, 214 W. High-st; Doyle M. Williams, 318 E. McKibben-st.

Some time in the near future the News will again offer awards for the best advertisement writers among its readers. Watch for it, get in the contest, tell your friends about it. Next time YOU may win the capital prize.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Miss Smart: HERE is a young man I have known from childhood and love him with all my heart. He is the man of my dreams.

We kept company for years and I know that he would give his life for me if there was need.

But as I have no home, I live with my aunt and uncle. There is a man who wants me to marry, but I do not care for him at all. They always criticize me as I love him. He is somewhat crippled and does not make much money. He is in line for a better salary, however, and then would be able to get married.

Somehow he heard that my aunt and uncle were against him and came to see me. He said that they were right and that some day I might feel sorry for him to do. I have not seen him for a long time and my heart is breaking for him. What shall I do?

ANNA.

THE attitude taken by the man you love is the one which any fine man who loves you unselfishly would be likely to take. He had done what he considered the right and generous thing.

But it is right for you to help decide this question and to be as generous as he has been. If you are certain that you love him well enough to endure poverty for his sake if that is necessary, tell him so and refuse to give up his friendship merely to please your relatives.

If you are too young to marry, do not hurry matters. Perhaps, by the time you reach a suitable age to marry the young man will be receiving the higher salary he expects and your relatives will take a more reasonable view of the matter.

But if you are 22 or older, it is your right to decide this question for yourself and choose the course dictated by your heart and your own best judgment, even the that course is in opposition to your aunt's wishes.

And the circumstances of this case are such that it is right for you to take the first step toward renewing the friendship. You are uncertain but he cares for you, and know that his pride and your aunt's opposition may prevent him from returning to you unbidden.

Mrs. J. C. Thompson Jr., was hostess at a beautifully appointed luncheon yesterday at her home honoring her sister, Mrs. B. L. Cammerly. Violent and delicious formed the centerpiece of the table and on either side white cathedra, adorned with purple tulle, burned throughout the luncheon. Mrs. B. J. Curtis held high score in the bridge.

Guests were: Mrs. T. R. Schoonover, Mrs. Harry L. Fenton, Mrs. Fred E. Gooding, Mrs. Glenn Butler, Mrs. Wallace King, Mrs. Chester Cable, Mrs. George MacDonell, Mrs. Virginia Knisley, Mrs. E. R. Curtis, Jr., Mrs. M. S. Thompson, Mrs. Lynn B. Timmerman, Mrs. Benjamin Flynn, Mrs. Edna Neely Rogers and Miss Violet Bradley.

Members of the Agenda club were entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. M. Andrews, Hawley-apt. Mrs. Clarence Wrigley held high score and Mrs. Walter De Kalb was consoled at the close of the play.

Members in attendance were: Mrs. Neal Poling, Mrs. Clarence Wrigley, Mrs. Claude Garrigus, Mrs. Walter De Kalb, Mrs. Harry Mackenberger, Mrs. Roy Doyle, and Mrs. Harry Nult. Mrs. Ivan Rinebarger was the only guest.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Walter De Kalb in two weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Mills, Toledo, are the houseguests of Dr. and Mrs. P. H. Hutchinson, 1168 Hazel-av.

BEAUTIFUL Toledo woman says money could not buy the splendid health Tanlac gave her.

"Tanalac has given me more strength and endurance than I ever hoped for," declared Mrs. Pearl Libbert, 722 Stickney Ave., Toledo, O., popular demonstrator.

"I was on the verge of a nervous breakdown, and it was all I could do to stay at work through the day. It was almost useless for me to go to meals or retire at night, for I could neither eat nor sleep to any good. Burning headaches and terrible dizzy spells added to my misery and I was about ready to give up."

"Tanalac quickly corrected my troubles. I have gained considerable weight and can stay on my feet all day without tiring. Money couldn't buy the good Tanlac has done me."

What does the cup supply for you?

Many people find harm to health in the seeming friendliness of coffee and tea. They first notice the unfriendly side of their table drink in sleeplessness and nerve-irritation—signs that health is being disturbed by the drug, caffeine, which these beverages contain.

It pays to face the facts when health is involved. It's a good plan to look for the cause of restless nights and nerve-fagged days.

Postum is a safe and satisfying mealtime drink for everybody. It meets every demand of taste, and it contains nothing which can disturb health. The children may safely share it with you—as many cups as desired, without risk of disagreeable after-effects.

There's charm without harm in Postum—the famous cereal beverage.

Your grocer sells Postum in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) prepared instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages) for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared; made by boiling fully 20 minutes.

VAL OF PARADISE

By VINGIE E. ROE

BEGIN HERE TODAY
JOHN HANNON, wealthy ranch owner, his blind wife, BELLE, and their beautiful daughter, VAL, live happily together in Hannon's wonderful ranch home, Paradise. Redstar is the king of the Red Brood of horses owned by the master of the ranch. In a game at HUNNEVELL'S store, VELANTRIE from the Border and LULA SANCHEZ, who offers herself as a bride for BRIDEMAN, man of mystery, Velantrie sends LULA home to her father than rides on his horse. Count to the mission near Paradise for a visit with his friends, FATHER HILLAIRO, who asks Val to marry him. Val, who does not enter Redstar in the Fourth of July races at Santa Leandra, Hannon replies that Redstar is too fast.

GO ON WITH THE STORY
"Funny thing—John Hannon hasn't never lost a cattle," Dyke had said once in Santa Leandra, "when every outfit this side the line, an' further north than us, too, has stood to lose a share each year. What's his magic, I'd like to know?"

And John Hannon had heard the word and when next he met Dyke Allison he tapped the two blue guns that swung always at his hips and looked the other hard in the eyes.

"Here's my magic, Dyke," he said evenly. "Want to see me make it?" And Allison looked back at him.

"Not particularly," he answered, "but I don't take backwater for what I said. I'd still like to know some things, but curious."

"Curiosity killed a cat, once," snapped the boss of Paradise, "an' it ain't lost its power none. I'd hate to have 't' bore you, Dyke—but you'll either keep a careful tongue in your head about me, or draw quicker'n a can."

"An' you know you've got me there," Dyke said hotly, "an' not only me but every man in this here range—an' you use th' knowledge to bully th' country with."

He never finished the sentence, for John Hannon flashed a hand, lightning-swift, at his hip and shot him where he stood—a fine, clever bit of marksmanship that broke the right arm above the elbow and left Dyke Allison maimed for life.

"Shoot me full o' holes!" raved the latter, "sieve me if you want to! But I'm still curious!" which proved him a man of strong mettle, indeed, facing John Hannon's guns.

"I ain't killin' you today," said Hannon, "it's a lesson you a lesson—an' any others that might be—too damned curious."

And he shoved the gun into its holster, turned on his heel and strode away without a backward look.

CHAPTER VI
The Cry of a Desert Owl

"Val darling," said Belle Hannon, groping thru a door to the depth and coolness of the great room which was her daughter's own particular place, "how's the dance dress coming on?"

Val went quickly to meet her and dry her forehead to a chair beside the open sill of the west window. It was a rule of that house that none should pass those outstretched hands.

"Perfectly lovely!" cried the tall girl, "see."

And she snatched a fluff of white from the high-built bed and spread it on her mother's lap.

"There are garters, little ones, about the neck and pretty spreading ruffles. The sleeves are short—just a bit above the elbow. The skirt is full and has three little ruffles, too. I shall wear my red silk sash and the Spanish shoes with the red heels that dad brought me last year when he came home from his trip. There are red roses beginning to bloom on the old bush outside the kitchen door and I'll put one of them behind my ear. I have the red feather fan, too."

"Beautiful!" said the woman, her sensitive fingers feeling expertly of the sheer material on her lap, "seeing" the make of the garment, "you will look like a full-blown rose yourself, Val, I know."

The girl laughed and a small dimple came out in her left cheek just above the lips' corner. Her dark eyes were melting soft at the vision of herself in all this finery.

"You just bet I will," she said

"OH! I BEG YOUR PARDON, GENTLEMEN," CRIED VAL.

Seriously, and Belle laughed also. There was a close camaraderie between these two.

"And your father says Boyce Clendenning will be up from El Rio Rancho to run his silver horse."

Instantly, Val frowned.

"Funny how dad likes that man," she said, "he thinks the sun rises and sets in him."

"He must be a good man, else your father would not think so," said Belle, quietly, "and isn't he young?"

"Yes."

"And handsome?"

"Yes, he is. Big, blond, heavy-shouldered, and with the smartest eyes I ever saw—except dad's when he's studying some one."

"Boyce Clendenning's got sense, I stake my pile."

"And he's got more than any man of his youth in all this country. The proper worth of El Rio Rancho itself makes him rich, not to mention the range he holds."

"All true, Belle dear," said Val, "but just the same I'd rather dance with Billy Smith from the Lazy B, or that Texas boy who rides for Quinlan. And say, say, mamma!

But that boy can dance! He's slim as a reed and his feet are like tumble weeds in the wind. I hope he'll be in Santa Leandra this time. Haven't seen him for six months, not since the day I rode with dad after cattle down Arroyo Pecos way."

"Nice boy, of course," said Mrs. Hannon, "but the daughter of the Boss of Paradise must look a little higher than a cowboy, dear. Your father has reached always for the highest, the best in its line as he says, no matter what it is, 'because it's the best in its line.' I guess he likes Clendenning because he's the biggest cattleman—after himself—in the country."

"I guess," said Val.

"That's why he loves the Redstar, too—why he's so proud of you, Val, and of Paradise. He's got the best in its line of everything the range-land gives."

"In wives, too," laughed the girl as she put the finishing touch to the gauzy white fluff and hung it carefully away behind a curtain against the ancient wall. "I guess we're not some proud family, all right?"

And pride was in Belle Hannon as she rose and went swiftly and sure-footedly away into the northern regions of the house on some business of the mistress among her servants humming a little soft tune—the pride of the loving heart in the strength and power of those it loves.

Val, clear of the tedious sewing.

stretched her young arms, snatched a sombrero from a corner, drew a lariat shirt over her curly head, donned a riding skirt and ran out along the stone floor of the narrow veranda that edged the house and the patio both.

Three cowboys in dusty clothes were coming in from the corral, Briston the foreman, Dirk Hammond and Roy Peters.

At sight of the girl every pair of eyes softened, each lean face broke into a smile.

As if she did not see them Val strode briskly along and bumped into them—and they, knowing the little trick, leaned in together, making a solid wall of defense in all the world against the sweetest assault.

"Oh! I beg your pardon, gentlemen!" cried Val, her lovely eyes wide, "but you're all so small—I nearly ran over you!"

Chuckling, the riders passed into the house, for Tanika was ringing the big bell that spelled dinner to those with in its sound, but Val swung out to the corral and looked among the horses there for Redstar.

He was not there, but Redcloud was, trotting restlessly about, his beautiful head tossing, his pasterns springing with every step, plant as they were forced back.

So, the boss rode west. And he rode Redstar, of course.

Well, she would take Redcloud—or no—there was Dawnlight drowsing in the sun, belying her name and her nature with seeming meekness.

Val caught her up and swung a saddle on her shining back—and the vixen spread her slim legs, drew in a deep breath and lifted her spine a trifle, ready for something when the cinches should tighten up.

But Val Hannon was her father's girl in her utter lack of fear of horseflesh, in her masterful spirit.

Now she laughed and set a quick knee against the mare's ribs and jerked the lariat with a practiced hand.

"You would, would you, you pretty wildcat?" she said "well—well—swell if you want to!"

And she pushed the breath out of Dawnlight's lungs with every pull of the strap.

The high-tempered creature switched her long tail and laid her pointed ears back along her neck and her eyes flashed, but Val put a heavy hand to her bit and set her back with a jump.

In the midst of the action, the girl put her foot to the stirrup and went up like a cat. Dawnlight screamed and flung herself sideways, shaking her head, but Val lifted her on the bit and came down with her braided quirt across the shining flanks—and Dawnlight staidied like a lady, prancing out of the corral on all four feet, properly. This was the only one of all the Red Brood who needed discipline.

Once out of the yard and beyond the house with the open plain before her she broke into instant flight and sailed down and away like a bird, a wondrous, easy gait, swift and light and sure, that brought a smile of pleasure to her rider's face and forgiveness for her faults. It was noon and the vast spread of the range country lay clear and sharp beneath the light.

Val rode down between the gathered monuments, left Paradise miles to the north and west, crossed the Little Antelope, where she let the mare drink deep of the brackish water, and came up out of its shallow dip between the scattered, cottonwoods that fringed it.

Before her, some three miles off, the gaunt, pale bulk of Refugio Mission stood boldly out. Val smiled and struck her heels to Dawnlight's flanks and rode fast toward the ancient landmark.

Father Hillairo stood to greet her in the gate, as he had stood to greet so many, but few came to Refugio brought with them the joy to light his kindly face that shone there now.

and struck her heels to Dawnlight's flanks and rode fast toward the ancient landmark.

VERY FEW CHANGES TO BE MADE IN MAJOR LINEUPS

(By HENRY L. FARRELL)
NEW YORK.—Most of the major league managers are not satisfied over the material they have to work with next season, but the majority will start with practically the same clubs they had last year.

The two champion clubs will start the season with just about the same lineups they had in 1922.

John McGraw says he is satisfied with his world's champion Giants and the world probably will rise up and remark—"Why shouldn't he be?"

The National League champions, however, will have two newcomers—Jimmy O'Connell and Jack Bentley, who cost the club close to $200,000. What this pair will do to earn their price will be one of the features of the season.

If the Yankees succeed in getting Eddie Collins from the White Sox, they ought to be a much improved team and they will have to be to win the 1923 pennant.

Collins at second, Bib Falk in the outfield and one of the young Sox pitchers in reserve, would not make the Yankees the losers even if they have to part with Meusel, Ward and Hoyt.

With Collins at second, the Yankees would have an infield almost as good as McGraw's million-dollar combination and with Falk in the garden, the American League champs would have at least one fielder.

Jake Daubert's "decision" to retire if he doesn't get the salary that Garry Herrmann says he will not give him will force Pat Moran to make a change in his infield. The Red Leader probably will get Fossow on first, if Daubert does not report, and it would be a fortunate move as John McGraw thinks that Fonseca is one of the best first base prospects in baseball.

The Pittsburgh Pirates are still looking for a second baseman. Bill McKernchie would like to get Sam

Bohne from Cincinnati, but after Barney Dreyfuss started the rollers under Rube Benton when Garry Herrmann had the deal closed for him, it is not likely that the Red chiefs will be inclined to do anything for the Pirate chief, unless he gets two dollars for one. The managers will do anything under those conditions.

Tris Speaker is working so industriously with the can that the Cleveland Indians may have to step out in April with a brand new team. This obviously expects a lot of youngsters to make good.

Ty Cobb will have a stronger second base and Rip Collins on the pitching staff.

Everyone knows what kind of a good ball player Pratt is and Collins is just waiting for someone to force his talent out of him. Cobb may be that one.

Chances of the St. Louis Browns depend in large part of what form the pitchers show down thru the stretch. The team is no better as a whole than it was last season and no team is going to win the pennant on last year's form.

Signing of Frank "Huck" Chance as manager and the spirited bidding he made for Joe Boley and Nux Bishop, two of the Baltimore stars, might be taken as an indication that Harry Frazee had decided to make a team of the Boston Red Sox, instead of a bargain counter. Boston fans will rise en masse and yell—"It's about time"

2 GAMES ON CARD

(By MERRICK M. HILL)
Two fast basketball games are expected Wednesday night when the local Y. M. C. A. plays the Findlay Y aggregation in an official battle in the state Y. M. C. A. basketball tourney.

The Lima Y team has been going good and is playing a fine game, and the team has more than a chance of coping the state Y. M. C. A. Findlay, however, has a fast, snappy team and can be counted upon to furnish plenty of opposition for the local quintet.

The other game on Wednesday night's program will take place at St. John's auditorium when the Southsiders will attempt a supreme comeback against Collins.

Following the defeat Friday night at the hands of Wasecon, the Southsiders have been working hard and they expect to win the battle with Collins. The game will be interesting as both teams appear to be evenly matched. A dance will follow the game.

The choicest morsel of the season in the way of basketball is growing closer and closer every day. So great is interest in the first South-Central battle, that all seats in the Central gym are being sold in advance and it has been announced that no tickets will be sold the night of the game.

South expects to stand squarely on its own feet and will not allow itself to be beaten—With the fact that the team was shattered two weeks before the game. And according to dope, Central has the edge, simply because the Red and green outfit, which starts the game will have played together since the start of the season. South will fight from the opening whistle until the final gun, and it is this ability to battle hot when backed up against a stone wall, that makes South a dangerous foe at any time. Central does not expect an easy game and both teams are working harder than at any time during the year.

St. Rose will journey to the Southern part of the state Friday night when they play Hamilton III five at Hamilton. Hamilton is become as being one of the fastest teams in scholastic circles in the state, and Phares, Hamilton captain and left forward, is reputed to be the wonder player of the year. Dope concedes the game to Hamilton, but the showing made by St. Rose against the University of Dayton preps last Friday night, gives Coach Baker and his proteges considerable hope to being on the long end of the score.

JIM BARNES, STAR GOLFER, QUILTS RANKS OF BACHELORS

JIM BARNES AND BRIDE
"Long Jim" Barnes, golfer extraordinaire, has added another big reason for desiring to topple Geng Sarazan and Walter Hagen into the discard, and once again reign as champion.

Delphos Quintet Defeats Ottawa Before Record Crowd

Opening of athletic relations between Ottawa high school and St. John's Tuesday night in Delphos was featured by defeat of the Putnam-Central and the largest crowd ever in attendance at a local cage bill. The score was 38 to 31.

Winners of eight consecutive victories and with no defeats between their seasons record, the Ottawa lads went after the Delphos cagers with tooth and tongue, and after trailing 22 to 19 at the end of the first half, came back strong in the second and threatened repeatedly to knot the count.

Superior passing by St. John's told heavily on Ottawa. The visitors made a garrison finish out of it and were knocking 'em in with rapidity when the final blast sounded. St. John's was handicapped in the last frame by absence of Imber, who injured his right foot. Heist substituted and put up a neat game.

The game was the fastest seen on the St. John's floor this season, and also the roughest. Ottawa brought along an umpire. He was frequently in wrinkles with the referee, "Speck" Kastor. It was necessary to separate the pair several times.

Delphos was unstrung toward the cessation of hostilities and threw early caution aside. Under the whirlwind four-men attack of St. John's, the visitors did not look so well despite their spectacular finish.

It was the first game over played between the two high schools. The crowd, including a large delegation from Ottawa, numbered 700.

Junior "Y" team of Van Wert was defeated by the St. John's host Evers in a fast preliminary 36 to 10. Shelby, local right forward, starred for Delphos. Lineups and score:

YANKS AFTER COLLINS

NEW YORK.—Eddie Collins, veteran second baseman of the Chicago White Sox, probably will perform in a New York uniform next summer in the new Yankee stadium.

Having put over the deal last night with the Boston Red Sox for Herb Pennock, 31-year-old south-paw pitcher, the Yank bosses are now hot after Collins. Demand of Kid Gleason for young White Hoyt along with Ward and Meusel for Collins held up the completion of the deal for a time, but now that Pennock has been acquired to work regularly, Hoyt no doubt, will be sent along to Chicago. For Pennock, the Yankees gave Frank Chance, Norman McMillan, an infielder; George Murray, a most promising young pitcher; and Frank Skinner, a fair outfielder.

New York thinks it the worst deal ever made in baseball and considers that it gives Harry Frazee perpetual ownership of the title of the champion David Harum at all weights.

Considering the policy of the Yanks the deal does not mean that the "Payin' Colonel" was asleep or drugged when they signed the papers. The Yanks have to win the pennant to keep up their standing with the Giants. Miller Huggins figures that Pennock will win 15 games for him and young Murray wouldn't get the chance to win one game sitting on the bench or slugging in the bull pen.

Like McGraw, the Yanks are becoming opportunists. They will sacrifice any future prospects for the needs of the moment, figuring that when the need arises in the future, the check book will provide the necessary.

Miller Huggins always has had a leaning toward veterans. The club owners cannot help but they are aware of this, and no doubt they felt that Murray, McMillan and Skinner weren't earning money sitting on the bench.

COBB HITS .372 IN LIFETIME

Ty Cobb with a life-time batting average of .372 leads all players of the world in this respect.

Cobb's mark will undoubtedly live for many years—probably forever. It will be a long time before the game produces another player with the batting eye of Cobb.

While it isn't generally known, Pete Browning was the holder of lifetime batting averages until Cobb appeared on the scene.

While with the Louisville club from 1882 until 1893, Browning led all batsmen with .356 life-time average. This mark stood for 23 years.

It took Cobb 10 years to bring his mark up to the average set by the old-time slugger. Since 1915 Cobb has gradually increased the lead.

The greatness of Cobb's feat is made evident by the fact that Rogers Hornsby, the premier slugger of the National League, has an average of only .347 covering his eight years.

Sisler is Cobb's closest opponent with a mark of .360 covering his major league career.

LOU NORTH IS IRON MAN

In serving as iron men of the hill during the 1922 season, Urban Faber of the White Sox, Urban Shocker of the St. Louis Browns, Bob Shawkey of the Yankees, Eppa Rixey of the Reds, Claude Cooper of the Pirates and others no doubt felt that they had earned their semi-monthly pay checks.

For statistics tell the story that Faber pitched 353 innings, Shocker 348, Shawkey 330, Rixey 313, and Cooper, 295, but there is another member of the pitching fraternity who has evidenced in the book showing that he had few idle moments in the National League last summer. He is Lou North, a right-handed curver with the St. Louis Cardinals.

When it comes to iron-man stunts around the pitching rubber, North has a record that surpasses anything exhibited by Faber, Shocker, Shawkey, Rixey and Cooper.

North appeared in 53 games last season—more than any other major league hurler.

North, however, was not a regular. That is, he did not toil as long and often as others.

In his 53 games, North pitched in only 153 innings, which is an average of less than three innings per game. Which means that he filled the position of relief pitcher.

Out of the list of 53 games, North pitched in only four complete contests. Against this is the stretch of 31 full games for Faber. North is credited with 10 victories and charged with three defeats.

Greb Gets Decision Over Laughran

NEW YORK.—Harry Greb, the Pittsburgh, "wildcat" still is the American light heavyweight boxing champion today, though he was more decisive than wild in the fifteen round title bout he fought last night with Tommy Laughran, Philadelphia's youthful contender. Greb received the judge's decision.

Laughran was the crowd's favorite and received an enthusiastic ovation as he left the ring for the clear manner in which he warded off Greb's spicy attack. Harry was warned frequently for butting his head against the challenger's chin and, when Greb could jump against Laughran's forehead.

The challenger showed a clever defense against the mild but difficult assault of the Pittsburgher but he confined himself too much to defensive work to win. In the last two rounds when Laughran opened up he found Greb an easy and soft target but previously he had been content with blocking and even exchanges.

(BY GERTRUDE GILLHAM)

Variety Is Offered At Faurot.

THE week-end program of Keith's vaudeville to be presented for the first time Thursday, according to press reports, is one of variety as well as merit. I am passing it along for your perusal.

Margaret and Morrell present a novel-torpidorean act that is billed as the coming hit of the season. There is much comedy in the offering and sensational acrobatic dancing. The comic effects are unusually beautiful. As a whole the act is guaranteed to entertain an audience most royally.

Smart comment on vaudeville with a liberal quantity of satire thrust in for good measure will be the offering of May Maxfield and Harry Golson in their comedy classic. The two introduce a variety of different vaudeville styles, each one highly magnified by the players' wit and humor. Maxfield is a comedienne who has much personality and her partner will prove a capable funster, who at the same time has a creditable voice for songs.

"Annabelle" is the headline attraction and is a snappy musical comedy of the miniature type. Dave Lloyd, Harry Sharpe, the Moore Sisters, Viola Ward and Leona Pitts appear in the cast. The comedy contains a bit of plot about which I will not tell you. There is the usual run of singing and talking.

Arthur Frazer and Harry Bunce are two of vaudeville's most celebrated comedians and song delineators. The two are extremely personable and are so strikingly alike in appearance that they cannot be told apart.

Six Hassans, the whirlwind wizard of tumbling feats and pyramid building in a whirlwind fashion. The Hassans have challenged the world and are said to be unmatched for skill, agility and strength.

That is the ingredient list offered by the Faurot Opera House for the latter part of the week.

Orpheum Extends Invitation to American Legion.

MANAGER Shaw of the New Orpheum theater has issued an invitation to the American Legion members of Lima only to present their Paid Up cards at the window and they will be admitted free to see "Oh You Wildcat" as it will be offered by the Mary Brown Company Thursday, Friday and Saturday. "Oh You Wildcat" was the official show of the 81st Wild Cat Division when overseas and toured France, Italy, Spain and England and was conceded to be the cleverest and most complete soldier show offered. Mary Brown has secured the play privilege of this production on the United States and will offer it for the last half of the week. There is an entire change of costumes and scenic effects. Mr. Harrington and Miss Lowellyn, late of "Irene" will be seen in a new offering and the MacPherson Trio have something quite different.

Unsafe Saving

There are many people who try to "save doctors' bills" by the use of this or that so-called medicine.

And the sad part of it is that very often such medicines are sold at high prices—the bottle frequently being the most expensive part of the whole outfit.

Instead of the supposed condition being helped it may be aggravated so that the last state is far worse than the first.

The wise plan—and the least costly one—is to place one's self in the care of a physician and follow his advice implicitly.

And when prescriptions are given see that the medicines are prepared at the Market Street Drug Store—where prescription work is a science, not a "side line."

VERY FEW CHANGES TO BE MADE IN MAJOR LINEUPS

(By HENRY L. FARRELL)
NEW YORK — Most of the major league managers are not satisfied over the material they have to work with next season, but the majority will start with practically the same clubs they had last year.

The two champion clubs will start the season with just about the same lineups they had in 1932.

John McGraw says he is satisfied with his world's champion Giants and the world probably will rise up and remark—"Why shouldn't he be?"

The National League champions, however, will have two newcomers—Jimmy O'Connell and Jack Bentley, who cost the club close to $200,000. What this pair will do to their price will be one of the features of the season.

If the Yankees succeed in getting Edick, Collins from the White Sox, they ought to be a much improved team and they will have to be to win the 1933 pennant.

Collins at second, Rip Falk in the outfield and one of the young Sox pitchers in reserve, would make the Yankees the losers even if they have to part with Meusel, Ward and Hoyt.

With Collins at second, the Yankees would have an infield almost as good as McGraw's million-dollar combination and with Falk in the garden, the American League champs would have at least one fielder.

Jako Daubert's "decision" to retire if he doesn't get the salary that Garry Herrmann says he will not give him will force Pat Moran to make a change in his infield. The Red Leader probably will put Fonseca on first, if Daubert does not report, and it would be a fortunate move as John McGraw thinks that Fonseca is one of the best first base prospects in baseball.

The Pittsburgh Pirates are still looking for a second baseman. Bill McKernie would like to get Sam

Bohne from Cincinnati, but after Barney Dreyfuss started the rollers under Rube Benton when Garry Herrmann had the deal closed for him, it is not likely that the Red chieftain will be inclined to do anything for the Pirate chief, unless he gets two dollars for one. The magnates will do anything under those conditions.

Tris Speaker is working so industriously with the can that the Cleveland Indians may have to step out in April with a brand new team. Tris obviously expects a lot of youngsters to make good.

Ty Cobb will have a stronger team in Detroit with Del Pratt on second base and Rip Collins on the pitching staff.

Everyone knows what kind of a good ball player Pratt is and Collins is just waiting for someone to force his talent out of him. Cobb may be that one.

Changes of the St. Louis Browns depend in large part of what form the pitchers show down thru the stretch. The team is no better as a whole than it was last season and no team is going to win the pennant on last year's form.

Signing of Frank "Husk" Chance as manager and the spirited bidding he made for Joe Boley and Max Bishop, two of the Baltimore stars, might be taken as an indication that Harry Frazee had decided to make a team of the Boston Red Sox, instead of a bargain counter. Boston fans will rise on masses and yell—"It's about time!"

2 GAMES ON CARD

(By MERRICK M. HULL)
Two fast basketball games are expected Wednesday night when the local Y. M. C. A. plays the Findlay Y aggregation in an official game in the state Y. M. C. A. basketball tournament.

The Lima Y team has been going good and is playing a fine game, and the team has more than a chance of coping the state title. Findlay, however, has a fast, snappy team and can be counted upon to furnish plenty of opposition for the local quintet.

The other game of Wednesday night's program will take place at St. John's auditorium when the Southsiders will attempt a supreme comeback against Collins.

Following the defeat Friday night at the hands of Waseon, the Southsiders have been working hard and they expect to win the battle with Collins. The game will be interesting as both teams appear to be evenly matched. A dance will follow the game.

The hottest morsel of the season in the way of basketball is growing closer and closer every day. So great is interest in the first South-Central battle, that all seats in the Central gym are being sold in advance and it has been announced that no tickets will be sold the night of the game.

South expects to stand squarely on its own feet and win the title—it hopes—with the fact that the team was shattered two weeks before the game. And according to dope, Central has the edge, simply because the Red and green outfit, which starts the game will have played together since the start of the season. South will fight from the opening whistle until the final gun, and it is this ability to battle best when backed up against a stone wall, that makes South a dangerous foe at any time. Central does not expect an easy game and both teams are working harder than at any time during the year.

St. Rose will journey to the Southern part of the state Friday night when they play Hamilton in five at Hamilton. Hamilton is headed as being one of the fastest teams in scholastic circles in the state, and Phares, Hamilton captain and left forward, is reputed to be the wonder player of the year. Dope concedes the game to Hamilton, but the showing made by St. Rose against the University of Dayton preps last Friday night, gives Coach Baker and his proteges considerable hope to being on the long end of the score.

Delphos Quintet Defeats Ottawa Before Record Crowd

Opening of athletic relations between Ottawa high school and St. John's Tuesday night in Delphos was featured by defeat of the Putnam-co quintet and the largest crowd ever in attendance at a local cage bill. The score was 35 to 31.

Winners of eight consecutive victories and with no defeats blemishing their season's record, the Ottawa lads went after the Delphos cagers with tooth and toenail, and after trailing 22 to 10 at the end of the first half, came back strong in the second and threatened repeatedly to knock the count.

Superior passing by St. John's, told heavily on Ottawa. The visitors made a garrison finish out of it and were smoking 'em in with rapidly when the final blast sounded. St. John's was handicapped in the last frame by absence of Imber, who injured his right foot. Hiett substituted and put up a neat game.

The game was the fastest seen on the St. John's floor this season, and also the roughest. Ottawa brought along an nuptial. He was frequently in tangles with the referee, "Speck" Kastor. It was necessary to separate the pair several times.

LOU NORTH

In serving as iron men of the hill during the 1932 season, Urban Faber of the White Sox, Urban Shocker of the St. Louis Browns, Bob Shawkey of the Yankees, Eppa Rixey of the Reds, Claude Cooper of the Pirates and others no doubt felt that they had earned their semi-monthly pay checks.

For statistics tell the story that Faber pitched 353 innings, Shocker 348, Shawkey 300, Rixey 315, and Cooper, 235, but there is another member of the pitching fraternity who has evidenced in the book showing that he had few idle moments in the National League last summer. He is Lou North, a right-handed curver with the St. Louis Cardinals.

YANKS AFTER COLLINS

NEW YORK — Eddie Collins, veteran second baseman of the Chicago White Sox, probably will perform in a New York uniform next summer in the new Yankee stadium.

Having put over the deal last night with the Boston Red Sox for Herb Pennock, 31-year-old southpaw pitcher, the Yank boys are now hot after Collins. Demand of Kid Gleason for young Walter Hoyt along with Wase and Meusel for Collins, held up the completion of the deal for a time, but now that Pennock has been acquired to work regularly, Hoyt no doubt, will be sent along to Chicago. For Pennock, the Yankees gave Frank Chance, Norman McMillan, an infielder, George Murray, a most promising young pitcher, and Frank Skinner, a fair outfielder.

New York thinks at the worst deal ever made in baseball and considers that it gives Harry Frazee perpetual ownership of the title of the champion David Harum at all weights.

Considering the policy of the Yanks the deal does not mean that the "payin' Colonels" were asleep or drugged when they signed the papers. The Yanks have to win the pennant to keep up their standing with the Giants. Miller Huggins figures that Pennock will win 15 games for him and young Murray wouldn't get the chance to win one game sitting on the bench or singing in the bull pen.

Like McGraw, the Yanks are becoming opportunists. They will sacrifice any future prospects for the needs of the moment, figuring that when the need arises in the future, the check book will provide the necessary.

Miller Huggins always has had a leaning toward veterans. The club owners cannot help but they are aware of this, and no doubt they felt that Murray, McMillan and Skinner weren't earning money sitting on the bench.

Prize Fighting And Baseball Are Money-Grabbing Games

(By HENRY L. FARRELL)
NEW YORK — "Save boxing" and "For the good of baseball" are two of the best chestnuts of modern times.

They are slogans for campaigns that have nothing to do with sport. Boxing and major baseball are not sports—they are highly commercialized amusements.

If boxing hasn't sufficient virtue to save itself, it ought to be tossed to do something "for the good of baseball." It is just the same as appealing to the public—"Come and help me make more money."

Baseball isn't the national pastime and neither is boxing. If both were to be stopped by law, the nation would go ahead just the same. More real citizens by far are engaged in playing tennis, golf, billiards, handball, and other forms of amusement than in baseball or boxing.

Boxing is a good form of entertainment when it is considered a prize fight, and the men engaged in professional boxing are prize fighters, no matter by what other name they are called.

To refer to boxing as the "nifty art of self-defense" is silly and it is done for the purpose of covering up what it really is.

Very few professional boxers could take care of themselves in a hand-to-hand encounter. Few of them showed an inclination toward real fighting when they had the opportunity in 1917. Their idea of self-defense was to stay at home.

Promoters of professional baseball cannot be criticized so severely. The players as a whole are of a type slightly more advanced than prize fighters. Perhaps they don't get the

COBB HITS .372 IN LIFETIME

Ty Cobb with a life-time batting average of .372 leads all players of the world in this respect.

Cobb's mark will undoubtedly live for many years—probably forever. It will be a long time before the game produces another player with the batting eye of Cobb.

While it isn't generally known, Pete Browning was the holder of life-time batting averages until Cobb appeared on the scene.

While with the Louisville club from 1882 until 1893, Browning led all batsmen with .355 life-time average. This mark stood for 23 years.

It took Cobb 10 years to bring his mark up to the average set by the old-time slugger. Since 1915 Cobb has gradually increased the lead.

The greatness of Cobb's feat is made evident by the fact that Rogers Hornsby, the premier slugger of the National League, has an average of only .347 covering his eight years.

Sisler is Cobb's closest opponent with a mark of .360 covering his major league career.

Margaret and Morrell present a novel, topsy-turvy act that is billed as the coming hit of the season. There is much comedy in the offering and sensational acrobatic dancing. The scenic effects are unusually beautiful. As a whole the act is guaranteed to entertain an audience most royally.

Smart comedy, on vaudeville with a liberal quantity of satire thrust in for good measure will be the offering of May Maxfield and Harry Golson in their comedy classic. The two introduce a variety of different vaudeville styles, each one highly magnified by the players' witticisms. Miss Maxfield is a comedienne who has much personality and her partner will prove a capable funster, who at the same time has a 'creditable' voice for songs.

"Annabelle" is the headline attraction and is a snappy musical comedy of the miniature type. Dave Lloyd, Harry Sharpe, the Moore Sisters, Viola Ward and Leona Pitts appear in the cast. The comedy contains a bit of plot about which it will not tell you. There is the usual run of singing and talking. Arthur Frazer and Harry Bunce are two of vaudeville's most celebrated comedians and song delineators. The two are extremely personable and are so strikingly alike in appearance that they cannot be told apart.

Six Hassans, the whirlwind wizard, offer tumbling feats and pyramid building in a whirlwind fashion. The Hassans have challenged the world and are said to be unmatched for skill, agility and strength.

That is the ingredient list offered by the Faurot Opera House for the latter part of the week.

Orpheum Extends Invitation to American Legion. MANAGER Shaw of the New Orpheum theater has issued an invitation to the American Legion members of Lima only to present their Paid Up cards at the window and they will be admitted free to see "Oh You Wildcat" as it will be offered by the Mary Brown Company Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

"Oh You Wildcat" was the official show of the 51st Wild Cat Division when overseas and toured France, Italy, Spain and England and was conceded to be the cleverest and most complete soldier show offered. Mary Brown has secured the play privilege of this production for the United States and will offer it for the last half of the week. There is an entire change of costumes and scenic effects. Mr. Harrington and Miss Lawless, late "Irene" will be seen in a new offering and the MacPherson Trio have something quite different.

The extra added feature of the "Hello Bill" for the last times today at the New Orpheum. Also Joy Marshall and company. Change of program tomorrow.

AT THE LYRIC:— Today and for the remainder of the week "The Flirt" with Ellen Percy and Helen Jerome Eddy.

AT THE FAUROT:— Five acts of Keith vaudeville headlining the Four Piano Girls. Also comedy features. Entire change of program tomorrow.

AT THE QUINA:— Appearing for the last times today "Kick In" with Betty Compson and Bert Lytell in the leading roles. Also Aesop Fable and Quina News.

AT THE MAJESTIC:— Today and tomorrow Rodolph Valentino and Alice Lake in "Uncharted Seas." Also added features.

OUCH! BACKACHE! RUB LUMBAGO OR STIFFNESS AWAY

St. Jacob's Oil stops any pain, so when your back is sore and lame, or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest St. Jacob's Oil at any drug store, pour a little in your hand, and rub it right on your aching back; and by the time you count fifty the soreness and lameness is gone.

Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the pain right out and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless, and doesn't burn the skin.

Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica, backache or rheumatism so promptly. It never disappoints!—Adv.

CORN

Lift Off with Fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers. Truly! Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.—Adv.

Unsafe Saving

There are many people who try to "save doctors' bills" by the use of this or that so-called medicine.

And the sad part of it is that very often such medicines are sold at high prices—the bottle frequently being the most expensive part of the whole outfit.

Instead of the supposed condition being helped it may be aggravated so that the last state is far worse than the first.

The wise plan—and the least costly one—is to place one's self in the care of a physician and follow his advice implicitly.

And when prescriptions are given see that the medicines are prepared at the Market Street Drug Store—where prescription work is a science, not a "side line."

Famous Thompson - Bywaters Case Recalled by Officials

CIRCUMSTANCES IDENTICAL

Love of Alleged Slayers Turned to Hate by Imprisonment

HENDERSON, Ky. (Special)—Will this mining community of 12,000 souls furnish the United States with a striking parallel to the Thompson-Bywaters murder case which has just stirred the world?

That seems to be a possibility following the announcement by County Attorney Leo King that he will ask the death penalty for Mrs. Luralee Noffsinger, accused of inciting Ollie Gibbons to slay her husband, as well as for Gibbons, charged with striking the death blow with a machinist's hammer. In London only a few days ago, Mrs. Percy Thompson and Frederick Bywaters died on the gallows after having been convicted under similar charges.

Bywaters, it was proved, stabbed Mrs. Thompson's husband to death. Mrs. Thompson, Bywaters' sweetheart, had urged him to do away with the husband, according to letters read in court. Mrs. Thompson was the first woman hanged in England in 15 years.

HENDERSON'S PARALLEL

And here is the sordid Henderson tale out of which the county attorney says he will make a parallel to the London case:

Gus B. Noffsinger, 32, mine manager, was found dead near the door of his garage, not more than 20 feet from the bedroom where his wife was sleeping.

Noffsinger had been stricken down by blows from his own machinist's hammer. The slaying took place on New Year Eve.

Ollie Gibbons, 34, mine employee, was seized and charged with the slaying. He was spirited out of Henderson by police who feared the roused populace would lynch him.

Mrs. Noffsinger likewise was seized and likewise was spirited away.

County Attorney King expects to prove that Gibbons committed the slaying at the urging of Mrs. Noffsinger, and the alleged guilty pair needed to get the $20,000 life insurance of the husband and with it to flee to a distant land.

King declares he has secured a confession from Gibbons, in which Gibbons is said to declare Mrs. Noffsinger repeatedly goaded him into slaying the husband.

"Many times," the alleged confession says, "Mrs. Noffsinger, had me to the mines and play sick to feel her husband. Then I'd come back to see her."

"I never had a better friend than Gus Noffsinger. He was my friend at all times and I wouldn't have done this if his wife hadn't kept nagging at me to kill him."

WOMAN DENIES IT

Mrs. Noffsinger denies the county attorney's charges.

"It's all a lie. He plotted my husband's death," she shouted when confronted with Gibbons' alleged confession.

The accused woman is short of stature. Her cheeks are drawn. Her dark eyes are apparently lost in their sunken sockets. She shows plainly the mental tortures she has suffered. Her daughter, Ruth, 5, is with her in her place of detention.

The most peculiar angle of the case is that the murder which, according to the county attorney, the pair counted upon to give them perfect love, has turned their love to hatred.

For Mrs. Noffsinger, is bitter in her denunciation of Gibbons and he is equally bitter toward her.

Ruth Dally, 1006 Albert-st., writes that her parents were in the habit of reading "Bringing Up Father", to their little son, aged three.

"One evening," Ruth relates, "they decided to call on friends whom they nicknamed 'Pa and Mrs. Jiggs.' Father said, 'Let's go and see Pa and Mrs. Jiggs.'"

"Little brother hearing the remark, said, 'Oh golly, Jiggs is back from China.'"

John Kugelman, 207 W. Wayne-st., says he noticed a woman in a store, with a purple band about her ankle. He thought it must be an ankle watch or some new sort of fad.

The woman met a friend, who called her attention to the band on her ankle. She looked down and seemed very much embarrassed. It was her garter.

Rowena Lucas, 709 W. Eureka-st., tells about her little sister, aged five.

One morning she wanted warm water to wash her face and hands. She was told by her mamma no water was heated.

"Why don't you cook some for me?" she asked.

Mrs. Harry Howell, Lima, R. D. 3, reports that while she was in a bank one day, a woman and her daughter entered the institution. The daughter presented a check at the cashier's window.

"You'll have to be identified before I can cash this check," said the cashier. "You must call in someone who knows you."

"None of that!" said the mother. "don't you suppose I know my own daughter!"

William Eberle, 216 Miller-st., writes: "In our history class last year we were studying about the campaign between the forces of Washington and Cornwallis. The British had been defeated and were slowly retreating, when reinforcements arrived. The teacher called upon one of the boys in the class to tell about it. When he explained about the arrival of reinforcements, he said 'the reinforcements came up.'"

Mary Detweiler, 213 W. Spring-st., notes an incident that occurred in her neighborhood.

A party of little girls was being entertained. The kiddies determined to play that a large doll had become ill and died. When everything had been made ready for the burial, they took the doll and started down street singing "There'll be a Hot Time in the Old Town tonight!"

Childish precociousness is noted in an extraordinary degree by Mrs. Ed. Banning, 505 N. Main-st., who writes:

"While holding my three-year-old grandson one day he noticed autos going to a filling station and asked, 'What do they go there for?' I told him, to secure gasoline so that they would run.

"Then he saw a bicycle, and asked, 'Grandma, do they need gasoline too?' He was assured they did not.

"Then a dog ran along the street.

The child exclaimed, 'Say grandma, does dogs have to have gasoline to make them run?'

Mrs. S. B. Cannon, Pemberton, Ohio, tells that she is engaged in taking care of an invalid woman who is very frail.

"She is the possessor of one hen," the latter states, "which has been laying an egg almost every day and I have been cooking one each morning for her breakfast. One evening I was perplexed to know what to prepare for her supper. I asked her if I should cook an egg. She hoped, 'Oh no, old henry don't lay two eggs a day.'"

Elizabeth Watkins, 622 E. High-st., tells that one day she was sent down into the cellar, on an errand. It was dark and she switched on the light.

"Upon my return upstairs," she says, "I was told by my father to 'turn off the door and shut the light.'"

Mrs. May Holiz, 201 1-2 E. Wayne-st., tells that while she was visiting recently at her parental home, her little nephew, aged four, asked his grandmother how old she was.

"I am 75," she answered.

"When? It's so long since you were born it must seem as tho it never happened."

Mrs. J. McClure, 537 N. McDonel-st., relates that a young couple in Lima was married soon after they had graduated from school. One morning the husband was ill and could not go to his work. The wife called up his place of employment and said, "John is ill, he will not be able to attend school today."

Audrey Reams, Ada, Ohio, R. D. 2, tells about a neighbor boy who had been very naughty and was reprimanded by his mother. Then he was told he was to be given a whipping.

He ran upstairs and hid under a bed. When his father came home his mother related what had occurred. The father started upstairs after the boy. He crawled under the bed toward his son, when the lad whispered:

"Hello, pop, is she after you too?"

MRS. FRANK PANAFF

In all parts of the city are taking Plant Juice and it is doubtful if any other medicine ever gained the same degree of success in Lima in so short a time.

Many local people are publicly recommending Plant Juice for the good it has done them. Only recently, Mrs. Frank Panaff, of 831 Oak street, Lima, a well known local lady, called to see The Plant Juice Man and gave him the following surprising testimonial.

"I had the flu two years ago and ever since then I had suffered terribly from rheumatism and kidney trouble," said Mrs. Panaff. "I had pains in my back and head and at times the joints of my knees and fingers were stiff and some of the joints of my fingers would be so sore that I could not close my hand. At times I suffered from gas in my stomach."

"I read about your Plant Juice and started taking it and this results are just wonderful. The pains are leaving my back and head and the stiffness and soreness of the joints of my knees and fingers is greatly relieved so that I can close my hands naturally. The truth is that I am feeling like a new woman and I can't say enough for Plant Juice because I had taken so many other medicines without relief. I am glad to recommend your Plant Juice and to tell my friends about it."

The Plant Juice Man is at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, Lima, where he is daily meeting the local public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. Free samples given.

Plant Juice is sold also in Lima at Hunter's drug store at Main and Wayne streets and at the Argonne drug store, opposite Post Office.—Adv.

Advice For Mothers

You Cannot Afford to Overlook One Word of This

Cambridge, Ohio.—"When my baby was six months old I had gone down in health with inward weakness so that I could hardly get around to do my housework or care for my baby. I was just about 'down and out' when I started to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The first bottle proved to me that I was taking the right medicine and six bottles helped me to get around to do my work as easily as before my illness. Favorite Prescription really did wonders for me and I am glad to recommend it at every opportunity."—Mrs. M. E. Stephenson, 4171 Long St.

Obtain Dr. Pierce's Prescription now, in liquid or tablets, from your druggist or send 10c for trial pkg. or tablets to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., or write for free medical advice.—Adv.

Man Solves Secret of Clothing Family

On Small Income

THE TERM "BUY" NO LONGER HOLDS THE SAME TERRORS OF THE PAST

There's one man in Lima today who has had a real load taken off his mind. He has solved the Clothes Problem.

It got so that he used to dread the evening home coming after a hard day's work because the subject would invariably turn to "Clothes," for Johnny, Margie, Helen or Wile and when a man is trying to make ends meet on a small income, he's indeed facing a real problem.

But it wasn't long before he heard of the Peoples Store's Friendly Credit, which allows everyone to be well dressed on a small income and today Mr. Workman is one of our best customers—and his worries are ended.
